45th Asian American International Film Festival Announces Award Winners

September 2, 2022, NEW YORK – The 45th Asian American International Film Festival (AAIFF45), presented by CITI, and a production of Asian CineVision (ACV) in association with Asia Society, announced the award winners of this year’s programming. The award of Emerging Director - Narrative Feature went to Stefanos Tai, director of WE DON’T DANCE FOR NOTHING and the award of Emerging Director - Documentary Feature went to Dongnan Chen, director of SINGING IN THE WILDERNESS. The complete list of award winners and nominees is highlighted below.

AAIFF45 celebrated storytelling by the AAPI community with 140 feature and short films, in-person events such as Comedy Night and Meet Cute Music, as well as in-person and livestreamed panels including Korean American Activism in Storytelling, Chinese Society through the Lens of Female Filmmakers, and various Q&As with filmmakers. 7 jury prize award winners were determined by leading industry professionals including Andrew Ahn, whose latest feature FIRE ISLAND (Searchlight Pictures) stars Joel Kim Booster, Bowen Yang, and Margaret Cho; Bertha Bay-Sa Pan, director/producer/screenwriter of FACE, and more. AAIFF is presented by CITI, a preeminent banking partner for institutions with cross-border needs, a global leader in wealth management and a valued personal bank in its home market of the United States. CITI celebrates its AAPI colleagues and the community. The bank stands in solidarity against anti-Asian racism and xenophobia, and is focused on resilience and unity. Together, CITI and the Asian American International Film Festival are proud to offer another platform to spotlight the many achievements of the broader AAPI community.

About the Asian American International Film Festival

The Asian American International Film Festival (AAIFF) is proudly known as "The First Home to Asian American Cinema." Organized by Asian CineVision, it's the first and longest-running festival dedicated to showcasing the moving image work by media artists of Asian descent for and about the Asian diaspora experience. The Festival takes place in New York City, the second-largest Asian-American market in the U.S. Every year, AAIFF attracts audiences from all five boroughs of New York City, the tri-state region, and around the world.

About Asian CineVision

Asian CineVision (ACV) is a media arts nonprofit devoted to the development, exhibition, promotion, and preservation of Asian and Asian American experiences through storytelling. Our mission is to nurture and grow the community of makers and lovers of Asian and Asian American independent film, television, and digital.

Films submitted and screened at the festival are eligible to participate in our National Tour program, bringing Asian diaspora stories to broader audiences across North America through a rental service for cultural and educational institutions.
